INCA TRAIL

Begin with a drive through the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Once you arrive at KM 82, you will prepare for the hike ahead, alongside your excursion team. Cross a bridge to the other side of the river and begin your ascent paralleling the Urubamba River. Visit the Miskay community and drink the local “chicha” before climbing to a plateau to view the Andes and the Patallacta. After camping for the night, an early morning will lead you to climbing the famous Warmy Huañuska pass. A difficult but rewarding hike, you’ll make it to the top of the mountain to see the Andes and the Inca Trail. After camping at the comfortable Pacaymayo, the longest day of your journey lies ahead, but with some of the most spectacular Incan buildings scattered along the trail. Ruins like the Runukrakay, the Sayacmarka, Phuyupatamarca and the Wiñaywayna will be on your trek before a small goodbye party to some of the excursion team for helping you get to the final destination: Machu Picchu. Located in the middle of a tropical forest, this is one of the most amazing urban creation of the Inca Empire. You’ll take a two-hour tour through this beautiful Incan citadel before returning back to Cusco.

Lima - Cusco - Inca Trail - Machu Picchu

8 Nights/9 Days

ANDEAN MARVELS AND THE UYUNI SALT FLAT

In Lima, you will take a half day tour of the Historical Center, visiting the modern and colonial parts of Lima, known as the City of Kings. You’ll enjoy views at Miraflores and San Isidro, and take pictures at the Plaza de Armas. The following day, you’ll head to Cusco for a city tour including the San Pedro local market, the Korikancha Temple (an ancient Incan palace and cult center of the Sun God), the Cathedral in the Plaza de Armas, the Fortress of Sacsayhuaman and Kenko (Q’enko – an archeological site where important Inca ceremonies took place). Then, you will visit one of the world’s most famous landmarks: the citadel of Machu Picchu. After the train ride to Aguas Calientes, you will ascend to this world wonder and enjoy free time exploring. Next, you’ll head to Puno, visiting Andahuaylillas, Racchi and Puca Pucara on the way. In Puno, you’ll visit the islands of Uros and Taquile, in the greater area of Lake Titicaca. Here, you’ll learn about the culture and traditions being kept alive. Finally, you’ll make the great expedition to the great Salt Flats of Uyuni. Marvel at the unique and isolated ecosystem populated by giant cacti.

CARNIVAL IN RIO

The Carnival in Rio de Janeiro is a festival held every year before Lent and considered the biggest carnival in the world with two million people per day on the streets. The first festivals of Rio date back to 1723. One of the greatest elements of the Rio Carnival is that it not only provides entertainment for many people around the world but at the same time it gives also a chance to learn about the true culture of Brazil. It is a euphoric event where people dance, sing, party and have tons of fun. There are many parties that take place before, during and after Carnival all night and all day. It allows someone's true heart to come out and have as much fun as possible. Call us and let us plan your Carnival in Rio Adventure.
